

[County Clerk] Reminds Voters of Online and Toll-Free Hotline Election Resources

County Seat, IN - Today, [County Clerk] reminds voters of election preparation resources, including a website and a toll-free hotline available to assist voters in their preparation for Election Day

Both www.IndianaVoters.com and the Hoosier Voter Hotline, toll free at 866-IN-1-VOTE, are available to check the status of a person's voter registration and the location of their polling place. Operators will be standing by to assist voters with any Election Day questions. Voters may also call the county directly at, xxx-xxx-xxxx for specific county related questions.

For general information on voting and Election Day results, voters may also visit www.sos.IN.gov.

(Insert quote, from clerk, or Secretary)"Our 'Election Headquarters' website provides a variety of Election Day resources for Indiana voters," Rokita said. "By accessing the site, Hoosiers can find out where they are supposed to vote, provide easy to understand answers on the new Voter ID law, and even provide videos on how to use the new electronic voting systems found throughout the state." The site also allows voters to submit questions directly to Secretary of State staff members on Election Day.

Voters are encouraged to use the Hoosier Voter Hotline if they believe they have observed some form of election fraud or for polling place accessibility issues so that they can be addressed immediately. The toll-free number is 866-IN-1-VOTE (866-461-8683). Staff will be on hand to answer the calls from 6:00 AM to 7:00 PM EDT on Election Day and from 8:00 am to 4:30 pm on normal business days.

[Insert County] has been working with the Secretary of State's Office upgrade polling places as required by federal and state laws. As of the Primary last year, each polling place is equipped with at least one voting machine accessible to voters with disabilities. [insert county] used $XX in federal and state funds in 2006 to make these upgrades.
